

NEWS RELEASE Hong Kong, December 7, 2012 –

AGS Four Winds International Movers has reached an agreement with ITS Educational Services Ltd (ITS) to provide clients with School Placement Consultancy Services.

“Relocating parents face social and academic concerns about their children’s welfare, such as: Will my child fit in? Will he/she be able to keep up with their studies? Is he/she academically-able for the school we choose? Accurate information on schools, waitlists, entry requirements and academic programmes are very important for a successful transition,” said Anne Murphy, Director of ITS Educational Services Ltd.

It is a well-known fact that the entire relocation process can fall down on such a single point, global relocation providers such as AGS Four Winds International Movers are aware of these factors and endeavor to be best placed to provide all-round support.

“Relocating to Hong Kong has its own unique challenges. A corporate client recently told me they were having trouble getting assignees to move to Hong Kong as school places were so limited. So we looked into this, spoke to ITS Educational Services, and there is an answer. Interim schooling solutions, with tailored placement services, a sort of one-stop shop” said Bruce Fox, Head of Business Development, AGS Four Winds International Movers.
